

NAME-TAG GAME

Setting Up:

Cut out the name tags below and tape one to the back of each player. Players should not be told what their name tag says. For a larger group, make several copies of this page – it's fine if more than one person has the same character name.

How to Play:

The object of the game is for players to go around the room and talk to one each other is on their back. The player may ask yes or no questions only to figure out who they are (for example, "Am I best friends with Rowley?"). When a player discovers who they are, they can step out of the game. The goal is to not be the last person remaining.
