GETTING STARTED

Thank you for celebrating the release of the eighth book in the DIARY OF A WIMPY KID series, Hard Luck. This Event Kit includes suggestions for games that will help make a successful event. You'll have to gauge the size and age range of your crowd to determine which of these activities will work best, and put the activities in any order you like. You may also reproduce and distribute the accompanying Activity sheets (at the rear of this guide), for fans to have fun with right away or to take home and enjoy later.

Some other suggestions to enhance your DIARY OF A WIMPY KID: Hard Luck Event:

Play Dress-up. Encourage fans to come dressed as Greg or any other Wimpy Kid character. Or, have them come dressed in head-to-toe lime green. Arrange a costume parade through your school, library, or store.

Get Drawing. Set aside some drawing time and create a “gallery” with the finished works. Ask fans to draw their favorite moments from the books, come up with their own Wimpy Kid stories, or invent entirely new characters. The goal is to showcase their creativity.

Serve Wimpy Kid-themed snacks. Serve M&M's® that match the colors of all of the books, decorate a cake or cupcakes to look like Greg's head, or serve chicken nuggets and call them “Drummies” and pick a beverage and call it “Rowdy Riot” (see Cabin Fever).

There are tons of ways to have fun Wimpy Kid-style. We hope this packet will help you create an event that's fun for everyone—whether the size of your group is four or forty.

Thank you again and have a great time!

WIMPY KID BINGO

SETTING UP:

WIMPY is a wimpified version of the game BINGO. Photocopy enough copies of the “WIMPY” game board to distribute to everyone at the event.

HOW TO PLAY:

Before you start, distribute one WIMPY game board to each player and ask him or her to write one word, or phrase, from the Word Box in each of the empty board spaces. Players can place them in any box and in any order they choose, but they should not repeat any words or phrases.

To play, ask the players the questions listed below. Each answer corresponds to a word/phrase from the Word Box. Ask the kids to mark the space on their game board that has the correct answer.

The first person to mark off a full row, column, or diagonal line wins! Remember, the middle space is a FREE spot. Check to make sure the answers are correct and award a prize. If the answers are not correct, game play continues until there is a winner.

THE NAME TAG GAME

SETTING UP:

Cut out the name tags below and tape one name tag on the back of each player. Players should not be told what it says on their name tag. Please photocopy this page if you have a larger group.

HOW TO PLAY:

The object of the game is for players to figure out which book character they've been assigned. Players should go around the room and talk to one another asking Yes or No questions to figure out who they are— for example, “Am I best friends with Rowley?” When a player discovers who they are, they can step out of the game. The goal is not to be the last person remaining.

THE SECRET WORD GAME

SETTING UP:

This game can be played in a group of up to eight players. If you have a large group, select random people from the audience to participate, and bring them to the front of the room. If you have a small group, everyone can play. First, cut out the cards on the next three pages. Then, divide the participants into two teams and hand out a stack of cards to each team.

HOW TO PLAY:

One team is selected to go first. A player from that team is designated as the first Reader. The Reader's job is to convey the "secret word" at the top of the card in a way that will allow his or her teammates to guess what the secret word is. The trick is that the Reader is not allowed to use any of the forbidden words printed on the card. The moderator must look over the Reader's shoulder to make sure he or she doesn't say any of the forbidden words. If the Reader says a forbidden word, he or she loses a point and must move on to the next card. The Reader has one minute to convey as many secret words as possible. Once the minute is up, the Reader's score is tallied and the points go to the Reader's team. Then the next team gets a turn using their stack of cards. A new Reader is picked every time a team has a new turn. The game ends once everyone has had a chance to go or once the cards run out, and the team with the highest number of points wins.

If this game is played in front of a large group, it would be best for the moderator to write the secret word on an easel that everyone in the audience can see, so as to make it more fun for non-playing participants.
