

The CHEESE TOUCH Game

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

A small piece of paper or Post-it Note for everyone who wants to play, and a hat or bowl.

SETTING UP:

Draw a small piece of Swiss cheese on a single slip of paper. Fold all of the little slips of paper in half.

GROUP SIZE:

Best for a group of ten to twenty. If you have more than that many kids at the event, it might be best to break them up into smaller groups.

HOW TO PLAY:

Players sit in a circle, facing one another. Each player takes a slip of paper out of the hat or bowl. Everyone unfolds their piece of paper and looks at it privately. The player who gets the picture of the cheese has the Cheese Touch, but this must be kept a secret.

The object of the game is for the person with the Cheese Touch to pass it along to as many other people as possible. The person with the Cheese Touch does this by winking at a "victim." When a "victim" is winked at, they have to silently count to five, and then announce to the group that they have the Cheese Touch. That person is now out of the game.

The other players are trying to catch the person who has the Cheese Touch in the act of winking. If a player catches the person who has the Cheese Touch, the game is over. Tally up the number of "victims" the person with the Cheese Touch successfully knocked out.

When the game is over, the slips of paper are collected again and put back in the hat or bowl, and players draw again. This game should be played in three or four rounds. The winner can be either the person who passed the Cheese Touch to the greatest number of people, or the person who caught more than one "winker" in the act.
